GETTING TO THE DESIGN MUSEUM

ON FOOT FROM TOWER HILL + TOWER GATEWAY

UNDERGROUND: District + Circle lines to Tower Hill

DLR: to Tower Gateway

Use the subway footpath system that is signposted from Tower Hill to get on to Tower Bridge. Cross the river on Tower Bridge, and use the stone stairways built in to the bridge on the south side to get down to the cobbled street, Shad Thames. Continue south on Shad Thames, away from City Hall, past Starbucks Coffee, Pizza Express and Woman at Man & Boy hairdressing, and you will reach the museum, a white building on Shad Thames.

ON FOOT FROM LONDON BRIDGE

UNDERGROUND: Northern + Jubilee Lines

RAIL: Overland network

Exit London Bridge on to Tooley Street via the London Dungeon exit (not the Borough Market exit). Cross Tooley Street so that you are on the same side of the road as St Thomas' Hospital, and across the road from the London Dungeon. Make your way south down Tooley Street past Hay's Galleria until you reach the new buildings of the More London development. Turn left into More London, walking towards the river and passing Caffé Nero, Marks & Spencer and the Ernst & Young offices.

On approaching City Hall, use the footpath to reach the riverside walk. Continue on the riverside walk past Potters Fields Park (on your right), and pass under Tower Bridge on to the cobbled Shad Thames. Continue in a straight line past Starbucks Coffee, Pizza Express and Woman at Man & Boy hairdressing, and you will reach the museum, a white building on Shad Thames.

BY BUS

The following bus routes stop near to the Design Museum:

42, 47, 78, 188, 381 to Tooley Street

100 to Tower Gateway

225 to Jamaica Road

RV1 to Tower Bridge

BY CAR

The Design Museum is located just outside of the Congestion Charging Zone on Shad Thames, which can be reached from the south by turning right on to Shad Thames at the top of Jamaica Road, and from the north by turning left on to Shad Thames at the end of Tooley Street. Shad Thames can also be reached by driving south over Tower Bridge, and turning left on to Queen Elizabeth Street. Turn left on to Shad Thames at the end of Queen Elizabeth Street.

The websites www.streetmap.co.uk and www.multimap.com are useful way-finding resources. Simply type in the museum's postcode – SE1 2YD – to be shown a detailed local map.

The museum does not have a car park, but there is a National Car Park on Gainsford Street, and parking meters on Maguire Street. There is a drop off point for coaches and cars in Maguire Street, but please note that this road is one-way and only suitable for single-deck coaches.

BY BICYCLE

There are cycle racks on the riverfront outside the museum.
