Super Contemporary

THE 24 EVENTS
JUNE / SEPTEMBER 2009

DESIGN
MUSEUM

London's design community is thriving. This creative hub, with its boundless capacity for innovation and originality has much to be proud of past and present. Which is why Beefeater 24 is delighted to partner the Design Museum's Super Contemporary exhibition; London is after all where Beefeater has called home since 1820.

Having created its new luxury gin, Beefeater 24, in 2008, it wanted to celebrate its own achievements as well as those of other creatively-minded Londoners. Collaborating closely with the Design Museum on Super Contemporary has offered up the perfect opportunity.

This guide then will help you enjoy everything that Super Contemporary has to offer – everything from bus tours and gallery tours to debating and gin making. Each one of these 24 events will let you fully immerse yourself in a long summer season of Super Contemporary.

SUPER CONTEMPORARY TALKS

WHY IN LONDON? HOW DOES THIS CITY AFFECT MY WORK? JOIN US FOR THIS PRESTIGIOUS SERIES OF SUMMER TALKS IN ASSOCIATION WITH BEEFEATER 24. HEAR SOME OF LONDON'S LEADING DESIGN FIGURES DISCUSS THE IMPACT THAT LONDON HAS HAD ON THEIR WORK, AND HOW THEY IN TURN HAVE INFLUENCED THE CITY THAT THEY WORK IN.

1/ TOM DIXON

WEDNESDAY 24 JUNE
DESIGN MUSEUM / 7.15pm / £15

Tom Dixon earned his name as a design maverick in the early 80's with a D.I.Y punk approach to furniture making. Deftly combining the creative with the commercial, Dixon went on to set up his own studio, become Creative Director of Habitat and now Artek, the Finnish furniture manufacturer.

2/ WAYNE HEMINGWAY

TUESDAY 7 JULY
DESIGN MUSEUM / 7.15pm / £15

Wayne Hemingway was an unlikely fashion contender, yet with future wife and life-long business partner Geraldine, Hemingway set up Red or Dead in 1982 to critical acclaim. Hemingway continues to be a force for change through Hemingway Design, a social design consultancy.

3/ AIRSIDE

FRIDAY 24 JULY
DESIGN MUSEUM / 7.15pm / £15

Founded in 1998 by Alex Maclean, Fred Deakin and Nat Hunter. Equally loved in Japan as they are in the UK, Airside have now become fully paid up members of the design establishment with their unique approach to design winning many awards including recognition from D&AD, Bafta and Design Week.

4/ BARBER OSGERBY

TUESDAY 22 SEPTEMBER
DESIGN MUSEUM / 7.15pm / £15

From ingenious coat hangers to looped tables, Barber Osgerby are the quiet champions of beautifully made and deceptively simple pieces. After striking up a working relationship in 1992 as Royal College of Art students, their design affinity has propelled them firmly into the design spotlight.

5/ NEVILLE BRODY

FRIDAY 25 SEPTEMBER
DESIGN MUSEUM / 7.15pm / £15

Neville Brody began his career in record cover design before making his revolutionary mark as Art Director for The Face magazine. He has continually pushed boundaries, turning his challenger gaze to many disciplines since; graphic design, typography and art direction included.

6/ PAUL SMITH

FRIDAY 2 OCTOBER
DESIGN MUSEUM / 3pm / £15

Paul Smith has built his archetypal British label on a foundation of playfulness, an impeccable eye and a steely business sense. He's barely looked back since setting up his first shop with wife Pauline Denyer in 1970 – he's been knighted, had his own exhibition and owns 230 stores worldwide.

7/ RON ARAD

FRIDAY 2 OCTOBER
DESIGN MUSEUM / 7.15pm / £15

Ron Arad is one of the most influential designers of our time – inventive, playful and technically daring. Born in Tel Aviv before moving to London in 1973, Arad made his name as a self-taught furniture maker/designer. His influence remains through his tireless output of architecture and design.

LATE OPENINGS: DESIGN OVERTIME

DESIGN OVERTIME IS THE DESIGN MUSEUM'S LONG ESTABLISHED ACTIVITY-PACKED SERIES OF REGULAR LATE OPENINGS. VIEW THE MUSEUM'S EXHIBITIONS UNTIL 10PM, TAKE PART IN HANDS ON WORKSHOPS, GALLERY TRAILS AND INFORMAL DISCUSSIONS, AND THEN RELAX WITH A BEEFEATER 24 DRINK AND ENJOY THE AVANT GARDE ENTERTAINMENT BROUGHT TO LIFE BY GUEST CURATORS LUIS CARUNJAL AND ANNIE DAVEY.

8/ LONDON TIME MACHINE

FRIDAY 12 JUNE
DESIGN MUSEUM / 6-10pm / £5 in advance, £8.50 on the door

Yesterday, today and tomorrow; travel through the avenues and alleyways of time to learn from yesteryear and see a vision of the future. Come dressed as London Past or London Future (but nothing in between) and step into our four dimensional world of talks, workshops and entertainment.

Tonight sees guest Design Overtime curators Jacqueline Poncelet and Carol McNicol select a brilliant mix of activities, music and surprises.

LONDON TIME MACHINE ALSO INCLUDES:

9/ DESIGN AND TELL

Grab your chance to make your mark and have your say – but you only have 9.6 minutes do it. Show your design endeavours and reveal your creative journey to a captive audience in the Design Museum's Blue Room through 24 images, one every 24 seconds. Register your slot by emailing overtime@designmuseum.org.

10/ ANYONE FOR TEA?

Visit the Twisted Tea Party in the company of London's finest Music Hall entertainers, Underbling

& Vow. A select group of valiant volunteers will be whisked back in time to witness a secret sing-a-long spectacular by the Thames.

11/ WHY AND WHAT NEXT IN LONDON FASHION?

These are two big questions being posed at this Design Museum discussion. Join this informal seminar led by musrooms in partnership with Let Them Eat Cake magazine and hear more about what directions London fashion might be headed for in the future.

12/ SPEED DEBATING

So, what is Super Contemporary all about? Thrash it out, find your perfect debating partner and have your say in the fast-moving-quick-talking-debating game. All activities are free with museum entry on the night.

13/ DESIGN OVERTIME FESTIVAL

FRIDAY 25 SEPTEMBER
DESIGN MUSEUM / 6-10pm / £5 in advance, £8.50 on the door

A last chance to see Super Contemporary at a spectacular late opening – not only is it the London Design Festival but it's our 20th birthday too! See the shows, take part in debates and workshops set to a blend of Design Overtime music and entertainment. Check designmuseum.org for details of how to enter our 20th birthday bake off.

GALLERY TALKS

GET RIGHT UNDER THE SKIN OF ALL THINGS SUPER CONTEMPORARY BY JOINING ONE OF OUR GALLERY TALKS. A DESIGN MUSEUM CURATOR OR DESIGN SPECIALIST WILL BE ON HAND TO GUIDE YOU ROUND THE SHOW IN ONE OF OUR 30 MINUTE TALKS. THERE'S NO PRE-BOOKING BUT BE AWARE THAT SPACES WILL BE LIMITED ON EACH TALK. JUST ASK AT THE MUSEUM'S ADMISSIONS DESK ABOUT WHERE TO ASSEMBLE.
