JOHN PAWSON – WORKS

BY DEYAN SUDJIC

£24.95

Published by Phaidon

John Pawson - Works tracks the relationship between an architect and his client, between an architect and the design briefs set for him, and between the architect and his own intellectual approach to design. This book is a record of John Pawson's developing approach to design and his unique position at the meeting point of art and design, and, through that, it offers much wider insights into culture, society and architecture.

WISHBONE CHAIR

DESIGNED BY HANS J. WEGNER

£595

The Wishbone Chair, designed by Hans J. Wegner for Carl Hansen & Son in 1949 is John Pawson's favourite chair and features in many of his projects. This light, sculptural dining chair with hand-woven seat features a steam-bent, gently rounded top-piece which provides freedom of movement and generous comfort making it suitable for relaxed sitting away from the table too.

JOHN PAWSON – MINIMUM

BY JOHN PAWSON

£24.95

Published by Phaidon

This book is an essay by John Pawson, both expressing and embodying the ideas of reduction, of simplicity, of austerity, of repetition. The pages reveal stark but beautiful images of architecture and engineering, of ceramics and furniture, of photography and works of art, from many periods and cultures, that all combine to express the idea of simplicity.
