Wes Anderson: The Archives

21 November - 26 July 2026

From the melancholic charm of The Royal Tenenbaums to the youthful adventure of Moonrise Kingdom, discover how Anderson's unique vision and dedication to detail have created some of the most visually and emotionally compelling films of recent times.

Over 600 objects will bring together the director's meticulous craft of filmmaking through original storyboards, polaroids, sketches, paintings, handwritten notebooks, puppets, miniature models, dozens of costumes worn by much-loved characters, and more. With highlights including a candy-pink model of the Grand Budapest Hotel, this landmark exhibition will chart the evolution of Wes Anderson's films from early experiments in the 1990s to recent productions as well as collaborations with key long-standing creative partners.
