overview

The Design Museum in Kensington is the world's leading museum devoted to architecture and design. As a creative centre and iconic London landmark, the Museum is a celebration of the many design skills at which Britain excels, and a marketplace for new ideas.

Located on Kensington High Street with beautiful views over Holland Park, the Design Museum offers unparalleled event spaces for entertaining within a Grade II* listed building.

One of the most important modern buildings in London, this stunningly refurbished venue, which was remodelled by John Pawson, is available for meetings, conferences, screenings, award ceremonies, dinners, drinks receptions, and product launches.

The museum is a registered charity governed by a board of trustees. By hosting your event at the Design Museum you are contributing to the museum's vision of helping everyone understand the value of design.

unique offer

Combine your event with an exhibition visit, a guided tour or beautiful gifts from the Design Museum Shop.

exhibition visits

Ensure your event is truly memorable by combining it with exclusive access to the Design Museum's exhibitions. Choose from one of our temporary exhibitions or get an introduction to design in Designer Maker User, which tells the story of contemporary design through these three interconnected roles using the museum's collection.

guided tours & bespoke tour packages

Ensure your guests make the most of their visit by combining your event with a guided tour of one of our world renowned exhibitions. Our expert guides will provide your group with a unique experience. Bespoke tour packages are available during opening hours and after hours. Find out more by contacting our team.

design gifts

Treat your guests to tailored gift solutions from the Design Museum Shop. Select from our carefully curated edit of the best in design and beautiful books to complement your event at the Design Museum.

testimonials

“Thank you for all your help in making our event a success! We had so much positive feedback about the flow of the event as well as the venue itself. Believe me, it is a hard-to-please crowd and they were all blown away by the venue!”

Head of Community, Firstminute Capital

“We used one of the rooms at the Design Museum to launch a development programme. It is a fantastic venue, with stunning views over Holland Park. We also booked a guided tour of the museum, which is a must! The service was prompt and courteous and the venue was very good value. We will definitely use it again!”

Leadership Development Manager, Marks and Spencer PLC

“You were very welcoming and this was a great, inspiring experience away from the office!”

Content Editor, Santander UK

“We were happy with our event because of the great service and that extreme attention to detail the Design Museum team delivered on the day and throughout all the months before, during the organisation of the event.”

Italian Trade Agency, London

The background image shows a large, modern event space. The ceiling is filled with numerous hanging cylindrical light fixtures in various shades of gold and bronze, some with intricate patterns. Below, a long table covered with a dark blue cloth is set for an event, with black chairs and white tableware. The lighting is warm and ambient.

sustainability

EVENTS

All of our approved event suppliers have gone through a rigorous selection process to ensure they are working towards Net Zero, are committed to Zero Waste to Landfill, and are encouraging ways for clients to make their events more sustainable in their design proposals and quotes.

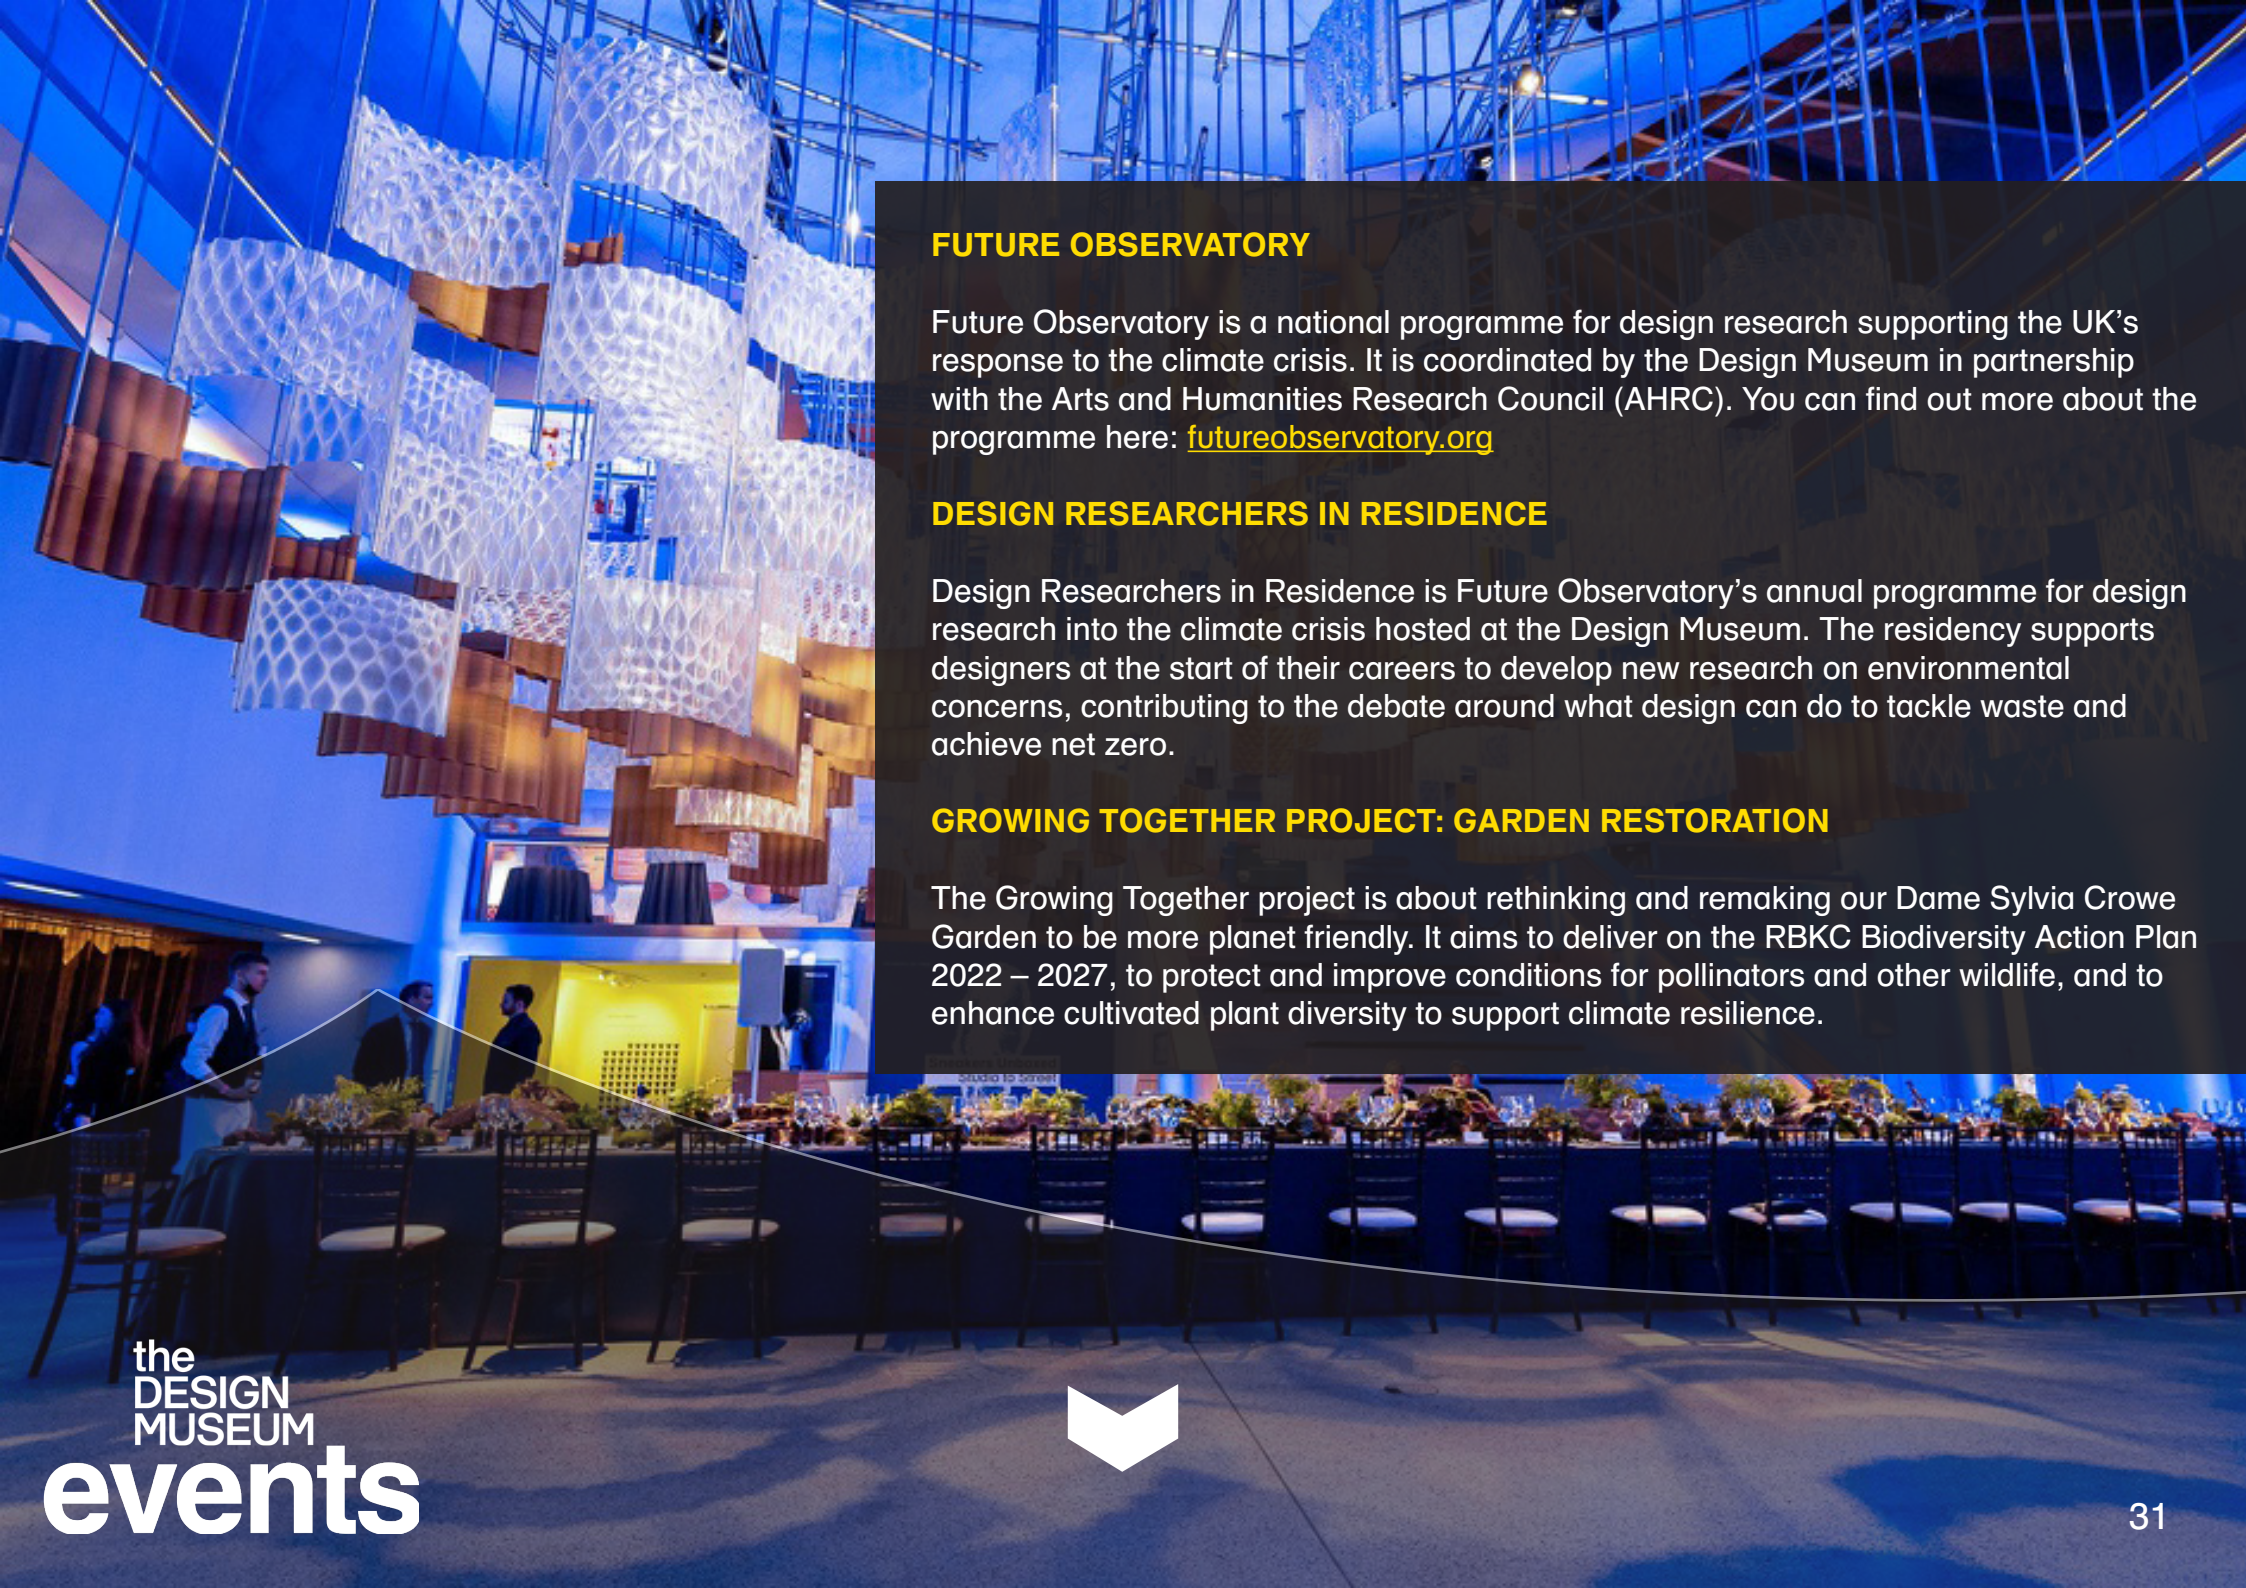

EXHIBITIONS

We are working on an Environmental Impact Exhibition Design Guide that will help benchmark sustainable practices and reduce the carbon footprint of exhibitions in the future. The environmental crisis is an ongoing focus of the Design Museum's programme of exhibitions.

COMMITMENT TO ACHIEVING NET ZERO

The Design Museum is committed to being a net zero organisation and works with design and engineering consultants including Urge and Arup to measure and improve its carbon profile.

FUTURE OBSERVATORY

Future Observatory is a national programme for design research supporting the UK's response to the climate crisis. It is coordinated by the Design Museum in partnership with the Arts and Humanities Research Council (AHRC). You can find out more about the programme here: futureobservatory.org

DESIGN RESEARCHERS IN RESIDENCE

Design Researchers in Residence is Future Observatory's annual programme for design research into the climate crisis hosted at the Design Museum. The residency supports designers at the start of their careers to develop new research on environmental concerns, contributing to the debate around what design can do to tackle waste and achieve net zero.

GROWING TOGETHER PROJECT: GARDEN RESTORATION

The Growing Together project is about rethinking and remaking our Dame Sylvia Crowe Garden to be more planet friendly. It aims to deliver on the RBKC Biodiversity Action Plan 2022 – 2027, to protect and improve conditions for pollinators and other wildlife, and to enhance cultivated plant diversity to support climate resilience.
